Objective Test Instructions District Leadership Conference

2024

Overview of Testing

Objective test, often referred to as an "online test" is a 100-question multiple choice exam developed by National FBLA on a set topic. Members are given 50 minutes (30 minutes with 50 questions for Business Ethics) to complete the exam.

Policies and Procedures

- Iowa FBLA uses Blue Panda eTesting for the objective testing software.
- All tests must be completed in the official testing window pre-set by lowa FBLA and in one sitting.
- Test scores are not released until the close of the conference.
- Iowa FBLA does NOT mandate proctored testing for the district level. Local advisers may choose to proctor students. The local adviser of the chapter may serve as the proctor, or another educator, such as the guidance counselor, outside of the chapter must serve as the proctor. The proctor should see the computer screen at all times.
- Tests should be scheduled with an additional 15-20 minutes to allow time to get set up.
- The use of outside websites, electronic devices, or reference materials is prohibited.
- All tests must be taken individually including team events.
- Iowa FBLA receives all tests from National FBLA.
